

Sube Shopping Agreement

Please review the following terms and conditions

Who is Eligible To Purchase the Sube Homeschool Product

The following K-12 individuals are eligible to purchase the Sube Homeschool Product:

- Parents teaching Spanish at home to their children
- Parents that are homeschooling and are certified homeschoolers in their state.
- Multiple parents who are part of a homeschool group that purchased the Sube Homeschool product.

The following K-12 individuals are NOT eligible to purchase the Sube Homeschool Product:

- Public or private educational institutions
- Language schools or institutions that are charging for their services
- Any individual charging for their language instruction services

License agreement and use

The Homeschool product will be accessible through the www.sube.com website within 24 hours of purchase via assigned login code upon acceptance of these terms. Please check your spam filter if you have not received your welcome email with access information, and contact us if you have any problems.

Multiple users from the same homeschool group can send us their name/email address and we will provide individual username access.

Any violation of the terms of this agreement will be subject to a non-refundable cancellation.

Statement of Eligibility

I represent that I am a member of one of the defined groups above eligible to purchase the Sube Homeschool Product and that the products being purchased direct from from the Sube website are for being used exclusively for non-commercial language instruction as outlined above.

Name _____

Date _____